

Jan Simis

One Long River of Song

Reflections on friendship, writing and remembrance
with David James Duncan

On Saturday, October 19th author David James Duncan will share reflections and remembrances gathered along the creative path walked with his friend, celebrated poet, Tom Crawford.

Sunday, October 20th David will offer a pre-publication preview of One Long River of Song: Notes on Wonder for the Spiritual and Nonspiritual Alike, a forthcoming book of essays by his friend, renowned author, Brian Doyle.

David James Duncan is the author of the novels The River Why and The Brothers K, the story collection River Teeth, the non-fiction collections My Story as Told by Water and God Laughs & Plays, along with the fast response activist books Citizen's Dissent (with Wendell Berry) and Heart of the Monster (with Rick Bass). He is currently working on a novel titled Sun House while camping out in the Mono Basin as the first ever Tom Crawford Artist in Residence sponsored by the DeChambeau Creek Foundation.

For more information please write dechambeaucreekfdn@gmail.com.

Saturday, October 19
Mono Lake
County Park
3:00–4:30pm

Sunday, October 20
Lee Vining
Community Center
3:00–4:30pm

Rooted in 135 acres of protected private land in California's Mono Basin, the DeChambeau Creek Foundation cares for the land as founder, Jan Simis, did. The Foundation works to foster meaningful connection with place and one another through community investment, natural and cultural history education, conservation science and the arts.